Our large, well-appointed Inn was designed to offer the feel of a quaint, old farmhouse while offering the modern comforts our guests expect. It's an easy stroll from the Inn to the many local shops and attractions, including the Shipshewana Auction and Flea Market during the summer season. An expansive Antique Gallery next door offers ever changing treasures, while a short walk south will allow guest to delve into the Amish and Mennonite culture at the Menno-Hof.

We provide ample bus parking and luggage service, as well as assistance in coordinating local tours. We offer prescreening stays for tour operators to view our facility
